PUBLIC INSPECTION COPY OF FORM 990

Since June 8, 1999, exempt organizations have been required to provide copies of their three most recent returns (Form 990) and their Application for Recognition of Exemption (Form 1023 or 1024) for public inspection upon request. Prior to June 8, 1999, these documents were only required to be made available at the organization's principal place of business. The names of any contributors need not be disclosed. The copy of the Application for Recognition of Exemption must include any papers submitted in support of such application and any letter or other document issued by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to such application.

An organization that submitted its Application for Recognition of Exemption on or before July 15, 1987 must make this form available for public inspection only if they had a copy of the Application on July 15, 1987.

A tax-exempt organization must make its application for recognition of exemption and its annual information returns available for public inspection without charge at its principal, regional and district offices during regular business hours. If an organization files an amended return, the amended return must be made available for a period of 3 years beginning on the date it is filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

If the request is made in person, the organization must respond by the end of the business day. If it is made in writing, a response is required within 30 days of receiving the request. The organization can make a reasonable charge for copying and postage. The regulations limit the copying charge to that charged by the Internal Revenue Service for providing copies, currently $1 for the first page and $.15 for each additional page. The organization may charge the requester for copying and actual postage costs only if the requester consents to the charge.

The requirement to provide copies can be eliminated if the organization posts the relevant documents on its web site. The public must be able to download the documents and print them in the exact form they were filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The download must be free and use software that is available without charge. Even if the documents are posted on the web, the organization must still have a copy available for inspection at its offices.

If you have any questions, refer to the Instructions for Form 990, available at www.irs.gov, or call us for clarification.

Please be aware that significant monetary penalties may be imposed by the Internal Revenue Service on an organization for failure to follow the above provisions.

Sincerely,

THOMAS STEPHEN & CO. LLP
